Dear Ms. Best:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of June 25, 2018, wherein you requested copies of all drafted, submitted or received SF-716 forms produced from January 1, 2001 through December 31, 2017 and supplements our letter of August 3, 2018.

As noted coordination with another element of this command has been completed. As a result of this coordination, no records responsive to your request were located.

This no record response is made on behalf of Major General Gary W. Johnston, Commander, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, who is the Initial Denial Authority for Army intelligence investigative and security records in this matter under the FOIA. If you decide to appeal at this time, your appeal must be postmarked no later than 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. After the 90 day period, the case may be considered closed; however, such closure does not preclude you from filing litigation in the courts. You should state the basis for your disagreement with the response and you should provide justification for an additional administrative search to be conducted or reconsideration of the denial. An appeal may not serve as a request for additional or new information. An appeal may only address information denied in this response. Your appeal is to be made to this office at the below listed address for forwarding, as appropriate, to the Secretary of the Army, Office of the General Counsel:

Commander
U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command
